NB 1: Depending on how you use the account, you may be charged any of the fees above, which will be directly deducted from your account. Note that while the common fees, charges, and penalties are listed in the Table above, there may be other fees, charges, and penalties – you can find information on these in our tariff guide. NB 2: Charges are subject to change either on a quarterly, bi-annually, and / or annual basis. The tariffs displayed in the tariff guide may or may not include Government taxes like excise duty. Always ask for the most recent tariff guide and inquire whether taxes are incorporated in displayed charges. You can find information on these on our tariff guide, our website www.boauganda.com and at any of our branches Country-wide.
D	5. Risks
	a) Your account will become inactive if there is no activity on it for six months and it will cease to earn interest.
	b) You may not be able to withdraw money from your account if you do not provide full customer details and requirements.
	c) The interest rate is variable and so the amount of interest earned may increase or decrease.
	d) If your balance falls below the minimum balance allowed, you will have to pay penalty charges where applicable.

6. Further Points to Consider

- a) How to deposit money into your account: You can pay money into your account in any of the following ways: - (i) over the counter; (ii) pushing money from your mobile money account into your bank account; (iii) depositing cheques; (iv) any bank agent and (v) inward transfers using EFT/RTGS.
- b) How to take money out of your account: You can take money out of your account in any of the following ways: - (i) over the counter; (ii) pulling money from your bank account into your mobile money account; (iii) via ATM; (iv) standing orders; (v) BOA Agent and (v) EFT/RTGS withdrawal instructions.
- c) Inactivity/dormancy: After 6 months of no transaction, an account will be considered inactive OR dormant after 2 years of account inactivity. You will need to fill in a reactivation form at any of our branches country-wide or visit our website www.boauganda.com to reactivate your account.
- d) Deposit protection: Your deposits are insured up to UGX10million by the Deposit Protection Fund of Uganda (DPFU). Please ask our staff for further details or visit DPFU’s website <https://dpf.or.ug/>
- e) Tax implications: The current withholding tax / excise duty will be debited from your account.
- f) Account closure: You may close your account at any time. To close your account send us confirmation of this request in writing. If you close your account, there will be a charge for doing so (see section C in the table above) and the account will be closed within 5 working days. If this is a fixed deposit account, early termination may result in losing interest accrued.
